COAL MINERS STRIKE ENDS TODAY

WE ARE AMERICANS AND CAN'T FIGHT GOVERNMENT, SAYS LEWIS

President of United Mine Workers of America Makes Dramatic Announcement After Eighteen Hours Session, That Miners Will Comply With Order to Withdraw Strike.

WERE GIVEN UNTIL 6:00 P. M. TODAY

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—"We will comply with the mandatory of the court. We do this under protest. We are Americans. We can't fight our government."

This was the statement of acting president, John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America, at the conclusion of a dramatic meeting of the union heads here early today.

The conference which had been in session more than eighteen hours, adjourned at 4:15 a. m.

In a voice shaking with emotion, acting President Lewis pronounced his word officially which will bring to a close the greatest tie-up in the history of the country.

More than 400,000 bituminous coal miners were affected by the strike which has been in progress since November 1.

Lewis plainly showed the strain which he has been laboring under for the past ten days. His face was red and tired. His voice was husky. "There is no question about the strike of coal miners being ended," he of the highest officials of the United Mine Workers told the United Press today. "We expect the men to obey withdrawal of the order. All the power and influence of the union will be brought to bear to get the men to return to work. We expect argument in some quarters for a few days but we are confident that the union members will look at this in the same light as we do."

Throughout the night the conferees, 106 in all, strove to reach a decision as to whether the strike order would be recalled or the injunction ignored.

Through the closed doors could be heard a heated debate among the conferees. Complete secrecy was maintained by the conference.

It was not until after adjournment that the acting president consented to talk.

Agents of the department of justice were in evidence at the hotel during the meeting.

The United mine workers of America have complied with the "order" demanding recall of the strike in good faith," is the opinion of Judge Anderson.

The recall was submitted to the judge shortly before ten o'clock by attorneys for the miners.

After looking over the order Judge Anderson said, "I think this is proper and I think it is a good faithful compliance with the order."

"That was the intention of the union officials," said Henry Warum, attorney for the miners.

COLD WAVE IN NORTHWEST.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—Chicago was in the grip of a cold wave today as the result of a storm which struck the north and north central states yesterday, delaying trains and crippling wire service. A blizzard in Colorado threatens severe loss to live stock. Kansas and Nebraska reports heavy snows. In several North Dakota points it was reported a snowfall of two feet.

All freight trains running out of Fargo were annuled and passenger train service was three to four hours late.

PRESIDENT WILL OFFER SERVICES

Will Tell United Mine Workers and Operators Government Will Help in Mediation

CABINET MEETING IS CALLED

Several Instrumentalities Which May be Employed, High Government Official Says

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Wilson will wire the main operators and United Mine Workers and other officials, offering services of the government in mediation of the difficulties which led to the strike which has just been called off.

The word of the president's attitude was given out at the White House this morning.

Wilson has been ready all along to start mediation as soon as the mine workers started to work.

After the report of the president's message, the cabinet was called into session.

It is expected that the mediation invitation will be formulated at the meeting in connection with discussion of the means of mediation.

"There are several courses under consideration, several instrumentalities that may be employed," declared a high official.

Secretary of Labor Wilson who is understood to have opposed the Indianapolis injunction, indicated as he entered the meeting that the bureau of mediation might function in arranging a settlement.

RED CROSS GIRLS SEEK MEMBERSHIPS

Members of Local Sororities on the Streets During Day to Swell Number in Local Chapter.

GOOD REPORT FROM JACKSON

Red Cross girls were on the street today, the closing day of the Roll Call drive, seeking memberships in the Rush county chapter. They were members of the Psi Iota Xi and Tri Kappa sororities.

Reports received at headquarters indicate that the campaign is now well under way in every township. Dr. Bowen, the Jackson township chairman, reported 78 members to headquarters today, but said that he had not completed canvassing the township and would not make a final report until that time.

Many of the Rushville districts have not yet been canvassed. This is evident because over $40 in membership dues has been received at headquarters by Miss Nora Sleeth, vice-chairman for the campaign.

Further reports from the townships were expected by tomorrow at the latest.

District G. O. P. Conference Votes Down Resolution Giving Blanket Approval to Goodrich

FAVORS A SPECIAL SESSION

County Chairmen Vote Unanimously on Resolution Approving Calling of Legislature

The sixth district republican committee refused to vote a blanket endorsement of Governor Goodrich's administration to date and of his future program, but adopted a resolution approving of him calling a special session of the legislature to ratify the woman's suffrage amendment to the constitution, at the district conference here yesterday afternoon.

The resolution commending the state administration and committing the district committee, which is composed of seven county chairmen, to Governor Goodrich's future policies, whatever they might be, was voted down after a spirited argument, which was engaged in by other party workers outside of the district committee. The exact wording of the resolution could not be learned, because it was torn up after it failed of passage.

The woman's suffrage resolution was introduced by Mrs. Elizabeth Claypool Earl of Connersville district chairman of the republican women's organization, and was backed by Mrs. Charles Butler of Huntington, state secretary; Miss Esther Griffin White, Wayne county chairman, and Miss Mary Sleeth, Rush county chairman, all of whom attended the conference.

The resolution giving unlimited endorsement of Governor Goodrich was drawn up by a committee appointed by Walter Bossert of Liberty, district chairman. The committee was composed of W. B. Woodward of Richmond, Wayne county chairman; I. M. Bridgeman, editor of the Brookville American and chairman of the Franklin county central committee, and W. R. Jinnett of Manilla, representative from Rush county in the state legislature.

It was reported that the resolution was written by Mr. Bridgeman and endorsed "anything recommend-

Squad of Eight Comes to Help Celebrate Armistice Day and to Seek Recruits

CORPS STILL NEEDS MEN

Authorized Strength of 75,000 Not Obtained During War—Carries War Relics

A squad of eight Marines reached Rushville last night and today they were engaged in explaining to prospective recruits the advantage of becoming a "soldier of the sea." The squad headed by First Sergeant Shearer, came here to assist in the celebration of Armistice Day and incidentally to add a few recruits. They carried a large exhibit of overseas war relics, all of which had an interesting story connected to them. The squad's mascot is a typical English bull dog which Sergt. Coogler picked up at Harve. He was 47 times across no-man's land in a motor-cycle sidecar and once went 22,500 feet in the air in an observation plane.

"The first anniversary of the signing of the armistice," said Sergeant Coogler, "still finds the Marine Corps in need of good men owing to the fact that their activities and duties have broadened and the small authorized strength that congress has allowed makes them in much demand. The Marine Corps at the beginning of the war numbered about 10,000 officers and enlisted men. Soon after war was declared, however, congress authorized 75,000, of which about three-fourths was obtained before the armistice was signed. A very high standard was set for the men who entered the Marine Corps during the war and the morale and discipline was 100 percent, mostly due to the fact that a great many of the officers were promoted from the ranks and knew well their duties of making seasoned veterans out of recruits.

"The Marines are trained, clothed and equipped very much as are the land forces. In their preliminary instructions on shore at navy yards and naval stations, they are instructed and drilled in the duties of infantry soldiers, field artillerymen and machine gun companies. In preparation for their duties as

Levi Crull Asks $190 For Damage to Horse and Buggy Struck by G. V. Conway's Auto

HAPPENED HERE ON JULY 16

Indianapolis Newspaper Man Was Occupant—Court Calendar is Made For November Term

A new suit has been filed in circuit court asking damages in the sum of $190 for injuries which a horse sustained when struck by an automobile driven by G. Val Conway of this city. Levi Crull owner of the horse and buggy which was struck, is the plaintiff in the case.

Crull alleges that on or about July 16, G. Val Conway negligently and carelessly ran his automobile into the horse and buggy in which Edward L. Pitts and his daughter Mary Pitts, 15 years old, were riding. The accident happened at the corner of Ninth and Main streets. Crull maintains that the horse has not been able to be used since the accident, and asks $150 damages for the horse and $40 damages for the buggy.

According to the complaint, Pitts is employed by an Indianapolis newspaper, and had hired the horse and buggy from Crull, who says that he is in the livery and feed business at First and Perkins street.

INDIANA CITIES ARE CELEBRATING TODAY

Majority of Places Had Program Under Auspices of War Camp Community Service.

INDIANAPOLIS AND NEWCASTLE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Cities throughout the state today were celebrating the anniversary of the signing of the armistice.

The majority of the celebrations were being held under the auspices of the war camp community service.

A pageant, "The Quest for Freedom," was to be presented in six sections of this city by social and theatrical organization.

Newcastle, Ind., Nov. 11.—Henry county and Newcastle today paid official tribute to the soldiers, marines and sailors who fell in the great war.

The celebration centered in Newcastle and was held jointly with the observance of the anniversary of the signing of the armistice. The Henry county War Mothers had charge of the program which included a banquet and speeches of welcome by men of prominence.

At the eventful hour of eleven the celebration of the first anniversary of the ending of the world war was ushered in today.

Church bells, the court house bell and factory whistles set up a bedlam of noise which recalled this morning a year ago, when the world was overjoyed at the news of the signing of the armistice which brought to a close the most terrible war in history.

Rush county was ready, at 11-11-11, to observe the day in a fashion becoming such an event. The business district of the city was bedecked with flags and many Rushville homes displayed flags in recognition of the occasion.

People began to arrive early, and formed the vanguard of what was expected to be one of the biggest crowds ever attending a celebration here. All conditions suited. The weather was ideal. After throwing a scare about snow and rain and colder weather for today, the prognosticator relented and turned on the bright sunshine out of a cloudless sky. The air was crisp enough to give a person "pep," but the sun promised to bring the mercury up to a seasonable mark.

The festivities were to begin at one o'clock this afternoon with music by the band and an orchestra on the platform which was erected this morning at the west entrance of the court house.

The big feature of the day was to be the Service Flag parade at two o'clock. The parade will form in Main street, the township delegations forming in Third and falling in behind the band, and the Rushville delegations in Second street west of Main. The procession will march to First street, east to Perkins and up Perkins to Sixth. The automobile section carrying War Mothers, Civil War Veterans and the W. R. C. was to form in First street and move up Perkins to Eleventh and across to Main. Coming down Main, this section was to join with the marching delegations at Sixth and Main and move down Main street through the business district.

At three o'clock Colonel Robert A. Tyndall will speak from the platform in the court house yard and at four o'clock Harry H. Gardiner, the "Human Fly," will scale the west walls of the court house, go up over the roof, climb the tower and go up the flag pole. He will repeat the performance tonight at 8:30 o'clock under the glare of a spotlight.

The Sparkler Parade will be held at seven o'clock and will form the same way as the Service Flag parade. The street lights will be turned off and it is expected that the sparklers will make a beautiful sight as the parade moves down the Main street hill. Fear was entertained that the sparklers would not arrive in time, but they reached Rushville this morning.

The Salvation Army was ready before noon to dispense the famous doughnut and coffee to all ex-service men from a tent at the opening of the alley between Casady's dry goods store and Kelley's grocery landing parties from ships of the navy, for expeditionary duty and defenders of naval advance bases, they are further trained in aviation, in the use of portable search lights, the wireless telegraph and heliograph and the various other methods of signalling (qualification along these lines meaning extra pay) range finding, the erection, operations and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines, the planting of land and submarine mines, the handling of torpedoes, the erection and demolition of bridges, the building of roads and splicing of ropes, handling boats under oars and sails, the handling of heavy weights, the fitting of gun gear, and the various methods of slinging and transporting ordnance, and the mounting in suitable shore positions of guns of three, five and six-inch calibre.

"To their services on battle ships of the navy the marines form a part of the ships complement for battle manning six inch, five inch and six pounder guns of the intermediate and secondary batteries and anti-aircraft guns. They are trained and fully equipped for instant service as landing parties for duty on shore.

"Great mobility and facilities for quick action are required of the marines. They must be kept in readiness to move at a moment's notice and be prepared for service in any climate. Marines have seen service in all parts of the world including Egypt, Algiers, Tripoli, Mexico, Japan, China, Porto Rico, Panama, Nicaragua, Santo Domingo, Formosa, Samatra, Hawaii, Samoa, Guam, Alaska, Siberia, France, Virgin Islands, Philippine Islands and Haiti. The golden tradition of the marine corps have been upheld for over a hundred years from the days of John Paul Jones to the present time and the type of men who have made the (Sempre Fidelis) always faithful marines, from its very existence has been the real red blooded American lovers of their country and flag and served them for honor and glory as well as travel and adventure.

"The Marine Corps today offers many advantages especially to the young man. Recently at our training camp at Paris Island, schools have been opened to give courses in various lines of modern and commercial business including, mathematics, mechanical drawings, mechanics, drafting, motor transports, complete business education, general high school, gas engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, science, physiology, literature, writing, law, tool making, music, telegraphy and radio. Think of this young man where would you ever get an opportunity with pay, clothing and practically all other necessities and another offer like this.

"The regular pay of the marines varies from $30.00 and up, according to rank and length of service. A man starts in as a private at $30 per month and climbs up in accordance with his own merits and individual efforts. A man is given a good conduct medal for each enlistment he serves honestly and faithfully and for each good conduct medal that he holds he receives 83 cents per month in addition to his regular pay. Should he qualify with the service rifle his pay is increased from $2.00 to $5.00 per month. Likewise if he qualifies with the great guns aboard ship his pay is increased from $4.00 to $12 per month according to the class of gun at which he is stationed. While serving aboard ship, or on shore outside the United States his pay is increased twenty percent. A comparatively small percentage of the men in the marine corps draw the minimum pay."

ed by Governor Goodrich." Although it was intended that the resolution should be passed on by the district committee, it drew opposition from other party workers as soon as it was introduced. It was championed by Mr. Jinnett who said he was committed to Governor Goodrich's policies.

Robert E. Mansfield of this city, who himself has had some experience in state politics by reason of having served as secretary of the state committee in 1896, during the McKinley campaign, when the late John K. Gowdy was state chairman, opposed the resolution on the theory that it covered too much ground.

Mr. Mansfield argued that it would not be wise to endorse the future program of the governor when he nor anyone else knew what it was. Others took the same position as he did.

I. W. Henley, secretary of the state committee, said that while he did not speak with authority, he could attempt at least to give some idea of what Governor Goodrich's policies would be in the future.

During the discussion Mayor George Elliott of Newcastle and a number of other republicans from Henry county left the meeting.

Yesterday's meeting is one of a series of conferences being held in each congressional district. They were called by Secretary Henley to discuss organization work and apparently to get the blanket endorsement of the state administration regardless of what the governor's course in the future might be.

With very little discussion the members of the district committee present passed the resolution introduced by Mrs. Earl, approving the governor's action in calling a special session of the legislature to ratify the federal woman's suffrage amendment.

The resolution reads as follows: "To James P. Goodrich, governor of Indiana.

"We, the chairman of the sixth congressional district, do hereby approve of you calling a special session of the legislature to ratify the amendment to the federal constitution giving women full citizenship."

It was signed by the chairman as follows: W. B. Woodward, Wayne; U. M. Bridgeman, Franklin; A. L. Rings, Rush; O. P. Lafuse, Union; Charles Amos, Shelby; and Rufus Hinshaw, Henry.

Unions Must Purge Themselves

Labor unions must purge themselves of the radical element and selfish leaders to have the force of public opinion behind them, else their days are numbered. Labor unionism has suffered the experience of every class that places selfish interests above public welfare or that permits a considerable part of its membership to sacrifice the public good for mercenary ends.

We have seen an example in the case of the United Mine Workers of America. It has been proved conclusively that the present strike was brought about by the selfishness of contending leader. The miners were without a head when the president became incapacitated by illness and Vice-President Lewis took the leadership of the union President Farrington of Illinois miners union had ambitions and therein lies the cause for all the trouble which the United States has suffered because of the strike.

Pres. Farrington proved himself a wily politician. He reasoned that the man who could promise the miners most was the one who could be elected president of the organization. He began issuing circulars to local unions urging a plea for shorter hours and higher wages. The result was that Acting Pres. Lewis was deluged with requests for a radical program. Lewis was far-sighted enough to see that if he wished to hold his position permanently, he would have to out-radical the radicals. The result was the demands for the 30-hour week and sixty percent increase in pay, which precipitated the strike.

The railroads of the country have gone through the same experience as the coal miners union. Rebates, discriminations in favor of selected patrons, stock-watering, and grafts upon corporation funds, were by no means universal but they became so echnicated as to arouse a public resentment that resulted in legislation so restrictive as to become destructive. In order to protect the public against encroachments of men having power through control of railroads, injury at last fell upon the railroads themselves, good and bad alike.

The liquor traffic has gone through the same experience. Whatever one may think of the merits of prohibition—whatever views one may entertain of the extent of evil wrought by intemperance, there is little doubt that the adoption of a prohibition amendment to the federal constitution, like the enactment of prohibitory laws in the several states, was due chiefly to the lawless element in the liquor business—the element that was willing to sacrifice public welfare in order to add a few more dollars to monthly income. The liquor business as a whole had the power to purge itself of the lawless element—the men who sold to minors, to drunkards and to the needy whose families suffered from want. Law-abiding liquor dealers failed to disassociate themselves from those who defied law, and the public destroyed the business as an only apparent remedy.

The legal profession is under more or less of a cloud because of a few shysters of whom the profession has in recent years been getting rid. The medical profession suffers from the ill repute incident to the harboring of quacks. Journalism is under more or less suspicion because the editorial page is too often influenced by the selfish interests of proprietors.

Labor unionism, therefore, is not alone in suffering the consequences of toleration of lawlessness. Every defense of lawless acts of labor union agents, every effort to prevent law-abiding men from taking legitimate occupation, every attempt to promote selfish interest at the expense of the public welfare, has been charged to labor unionism as a whole, because it has not taken effective steps to purge itself of the criminal element. Even today conservative leaders of labor unionism make no definite and conclusive issue with the radical and un-American element in their membership. If they are not themselves actively participating in an attempt to overthrow orderly government in the United States, they seemingly lend aid and sympathy to those who are.

The evil methods of some labor leaders have been patiently endured until endurance ceased to be a virtue. Neither capital on the one hand nor organized labor on the other will be permitted to establish an autocracy in America. The people still rule.

POINCAIRE GUEST OF KING GEORGE

Londoners Turned Out in Thousands and Armistice Day to Cheer The Distinguished Visitor

STAGE GRAND PROCESSION.

Tomorrow He Will go to Glasgow Where he Will be Installed as Lord Rector of the University.

London, Nov. 11—The first anniversary of Armistice Day found the president of France the guest of the British King and queen, and Londoners were not unmindful of the date when they turned out in thousands to cheer the distinguished visitor and his wife on their way to the Guildhall, where they were the guests at luncheon of Lord Mayor Sir Ernest Cooper, and the corporation of the city of London.

As is customary on such occasions, King George did not accompany his guests but let them have the whole of the popular welcome to themselves but otherwise it was a full state turn out. Troops lined the route from Buckingham Palace to the city, and as overlord's escort of Household Cavalry conveyed the royal carriages containing the president and his staff. At the western entrance to the Strand the procession was halted for a few moments to permit the mayor and corporation of Westminster to present an address of welcome, to which the president replied briefly.

Lord Mayor Cooper, who was only inaugurated two days ago, commenced dispensing civic hospitality with enthusiasm, and in his state coach he awaited his guests at the city boundary. At the Guildhall, there were guards of honor, trumpeters and many civic dignitaries. The address of welcome was read in the famous library, by the city chamberlain, and later presented to the president enclosed in a gold casket. The address referred to the historic date, which twelve months ago almost to the hour, had witnessed the cessation of hostilities in the world's greatest conflict, and paid generous tribute to the French army.

In his reply the president paid equally glowing tribute to Britain's part in the war, especially recalling the deeds of the four famous divisions of the city's own citizen soldiery, the 47th, 56th, 58th and 60th, which fought in France, Salonika and Palestine. After the speech-making and presentations, the whole party adjourned to the historic dining hall for lunch. A notable company participated, including Premier Lloyd George, practically the whole of the cabinet, Field Marshall Earl Haig, and his army commanders, the French Ambassador, Foreign Minister Pichon and other diplomats, among whom were Ambassador J. W. Davis, representing the United States.

This afternoon the president was to hold a reception of the members of the French colony in London, and tonight he returns King George's hospitality, with a state banquet at the French embassy. Tomorrow President and Madame Poincare leave for Glasgow, where the former will be granted the freedom of the city and installed as Lord Rector of the University.

If Farmers Should Strike

Rushville, Ind., Nov. 10, 1919
R. F. D. No. 8.

Daily Republican, Rushville, Ind.
Dear Sirs:

I am sending this item for you to publish, please, because I think it will do the inhabitants of Rushville and also everywhere else to have this thought.

What would the people do if the farmers should strike? Naturally the people would starve. There would be vegetables unless imported. And if everyone else strikes how can the farmer do without railroad or some thing of the sort, because he might need some new implements or maybe more seed corn. If the farmers should strike there would be a shortage of meat, potatoes, fruit and all kinds of vegetables and these articles could not be imported if everyone else was on a strike. Naturally people would starve. Yours truly,
E. E. W.

A BIG YELLOW BOX FOR 30c

Ask your druggist to show you a box of Begy's Mustarine; he and every other druggist in America is authorized to return your money if it does not do as advertised.

Doctors have prescribed it for 19 years. It's the original and best improvement on the old-fashioned Mustard Plaster, and quickly stops rheumatic pains, neuritis, neuralgia and lumbago, and instantly relieves tonsillitis, pleurisy and bronchitis.

Just rub it on, and over night away goes sore throat, coughs and chest colds.

For sprains, swellings and all aches and pains, it has no equal, while for sore feet, nothing yet discovered can compare with it. It's the quickest pain killer on earth. Be sure its Begy's always in the yellow box.

LOCAL H. S. WILL SHOW THEM HOW

Spiceland Basketball Tossers Claim Nothing in This Section Can Stop Them

PLAY HERE FRIDAY NIGHT.

Locals are Going Goog and Will no Doubt Repeat Last Friday's Victory.

The local high school basketball team will meet a stiff proposition here Friday night when they will play the Spiceland Academy, and the Henry county team maintains there is nothing in this section that can stop them. The Spiceland team is out for district honors this year, after coping it last year at the tournament in Newcastle.

The Newcastle Courier in speaking of the game of last Friday night said:

"In a fast and thrilling battle Technical high school of Indianapolis, defeated Spiceland at Spiceland last Friday night. Spiceland seized the lead at the start and held it until the last five minutes of the game when the Tech attack broke through and quickly overcame their lead, winning 19 to 15."

The Spiceland gym was packed to the doors with a basketball-mad crowd that was behind the local team every minute of the play. When the game went the other way the Spiceland bugs were not disheartened for they felt that their boys had made a great fight against the wonderful Tech team. "There is nothing in this section that can stop us," said one Spiceland enthusiast.

Technical had the strongest team on the floor that ever wore the colors of the Indianapolis school. Two men in its lineup, Drayer and Hawkins, class with Stonebreaker in size and are not far behind that star in action. Spiceland took the lead early on foul goals. Both sides, fighting hard had fouls called on them frequently. Reece, who threw for Spiceland, made every one count while Tech couldn't find the ring. Myer bagged two field goals for Spiceland and Reece got in one. Nipper opened the scoring for Tech with a shot from the floor then Black added two more on free throws. Griggs of Tech landed a basket just before the close if the first half, making the score stand 9 to 6 for Spiceland.

The local team since winning from Milroy last Friday night here, is still in practice and will enter the game Friday night to show Spiceland that they can be beaten. Some of the best teams in the state will appear here, and some very interesting games are promised for the basketball fans here this year on the local's schedule.

INCREASE IN THE TENANCY NOTICED

Soaring of Land Prices in Indiana Has Been the Cause, According to Prof. Christie

TENANTS OPERATE A THIRD

Hope of Indiana Farms is That People Will Stay on Land and Build Up The Community

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 11--One of the most serious results of the soaring land prices in Indiana is the increase in tenancy, according to Professor G. I. Christie, superintendent of the agricultural extension department of Purdue university.

"Indiana now has more than one-third of the farms operated by tenants," said Professor Christie. "It has been the aim and object of our work for many years to encourage tenants to buy farms and thus increase the number of land owners who operate their own farms. The establishing now of unusually high prices makes it almost prohibitive for tenants to buy these farms and thereby increases rather than decrease the number of tenants on Indiana farms."

These high priced lands will have to be farmed as they have never been farmed to even make interest on the investment is the opinion of Professor Christie, who also believes that reasonable price will have to be obtained for products of these farms.

"Many farmers who have sold their land for high prices, hoping to purchase other lands, will be forced, if they get a farm, to pay a high price for it," he said. "In addition they have left their farm and community and must start again in a new neighborhood. While they may have the advantage of a little profit on the deal they have the disadvantage of the change. The hope of Indiana farms is that people will stay on the land, that they will farm it in the best possible way, and that they will build up the life of the community. This can only come about by families continuing to live year after year in the same neighborhood with other families who are congenial and sociable and who have the same ideals and aspirations."

AMUSEMENTS

Armistice Day at Princess

Armistice Day moving picture patrons will see a good program today at the Princess theater, when Eugene O'Brien will appear in "Sealed Hearts." The picture has just been released and was engaged as a special attraction for the Rushville and Rush county people who were here today for purpose of attending the celebration, and incidentally see a good moving picture. A Bray pictograph will also be shown, which has many good things of current interest.

Fight fans who thought the Willard-Dempsey mill was too one-sided, should pay a visit to the Princess theater on Wednesday where "The Egg Crate Wallop", Charles Ray's latest photoplay will be on view. Thomas H. Ince produced the picture, and he is strong for realism. He has staged in this film a full-fledged prize fight from preliminaries to knock-out, with such principals as Al. Kaukman, Cliff Jordan and Izzie Glasser, the West Coast feather-weight champ, in the ring and five hundred dyed-in-the-wool fight enthusiasts occupying the bleachers.

Charles Ray, the athletic star, mixes it up for five rounds with a regular "pug". At the climax Charlie puts over his famous "egg crate wallop", and his opponent hits the resin.

Plays Dual Role

Two distinct roles are portrayed by Montagu Love, the famous character actor, in "Through the Toils," the strikingly unusual new World Picture which will be shown on today at the Mystic theatre. In the first of these he appears in the character of Lewis Moffatt, an eccentric, selfish, disillusioned old author who seeks fresh inspiration for a new novel. In the second he appears in the role of Noel Graham, a young writer who falls in love with Moffatt's ward.

It is a striking, unusual, engrossing story which is told in this notable picture. It is an entirely different story too, from any that you've seen in a long, long time and the characterizations given by Mr. Love to the two men are vivid, vital and impressive. Of course an exceptional cast has been gathered together to assist Mr. Love in giving the proper presentation to this production.

"Through the Toils" has been lavishly staged. From every angle it is a notable film. You will be interested in knowing that Harry O. Hoyt, who directed Mr. Love in his recent sensational success, "The Hand Invisible," also directed him in this new play.

Baby Marie Osborne is also at the Mystic today in "Baby Marie's Round-up."

EVANGELIST MAKES A DEEP IMPRESSION

Notwithstanding the rainy weather last evening, a surprisingly large audience gathered at the Main Street Christian church to listen to the initial sermon of the Rev. W. N. Briney. His theme was "Watchfulness." He possesses a pleasing personality, a charm of delivery that captivated his hearers, and an earnest enthusiasm that impressed all with the soul sincerity of the man who has served his church in Louisville for 15 years.

A beautiful solo was sung by Lloyd Nelson. At the close of the service the Rev. G. F. Sheldon, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, came forward and stood in line for the people to extend to him a welcome as well as to the Rev. Mr. Briney. The song service this evening will begin at 7:30. The solo of the evening will be rendered by Homer Cole. At 8 the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Briney will be delivered.

EVEN MOVIES GO UP IN AIRPLANE

California Studios Have Commercial Planes Which Are All Doing a Big Business

ALL LIKE THEIR JOY RIDING

Charlie Chaplin Throws Pies in Air and Even Cecil DeMille Has Gone up in The Air

Los Angeles, Nov. 11—The movies are seeking a higher plane—an airplane, as it were.

For some subtle reason, thus far unexplained, airplaning has strongly appealed to the movie folk.

As a result southern California now has three completely equipped commercial flying fields, all operated by motion picture magnates as a sideline and as a means of amusement, and all doing a thriving commercial business.

Cecil DeMille, noted director, was the first to go up in the air over aviation. He established DeMille Field and later became the leading spirit in the founding of the Mercury Aviation Company which operates a half dozen aerial taxis and will accept any job from bringing a prize pig to market or taking home a late celebrant, to rushing a busy business man to Kankakee to attend his grandmother's funeral.

Then the Chaplin family saw something funny, evidently, in aviation. Syd Chaplin, brother of Charlie, founded the Chaplin Aircraft Corporation and started Chaplin Field in the heart of Los Angeles. Brother Charlie put some of his money into it 'tis understood. So now the Chaplin company is owner of a flock of Curtiss bi-planes and a pair of "Seagulls" or flying boats said to be similar to the famed "Nancies."

Next came Thomas Ince. He started Ince Field down at Venice. Ince isn't in the game commercially as extensively as the others. He's offering, however, $50,000 for the first man to fly to Australia.

The result of all of this is that Los Angeles now claims to be the largest commercial aviation center in the world. Scores are learning to fly and the hum of the airplane motor is becoming such a nuisance that one good minister is urging passage of a law requiring flyers to shut off their motors when they fly over churches; and more than one tired resident is complaining that those "confounded flyin' machines" disturb his Sunday morning beauty sleep.

SLIM A HERO UNSUNG

New York, Nov. 11—World series bouquets have been passed around galore. Pat Moran, boss of the world's champions, has been crowned king of the "Miracle men" and has received recognition from the club owners with a $5,000 bonus check. We all think it's the best tonic laxative we ever heard about, and so do other people we have recommended it to.

Take it every other night for three weeks, if you want to feel better, sleep better, work better and be better.

The Doctor Says

Remove the Cause

Don't think this is a PATENT MEDICINE ADVERTISEMENT, for it is not. However, if a man is sick people don't, as a rule, stand around and criticize him and say he can't be cured; they make an effort to find out the cause of his trouble and REMOVE IT. That's just where I am at in the SPREADER business.

Right along this line I want to say that if you have any thoughts in your mind, causing you to delay the purchase of a spreader, let me try to remove this cause immediately, for you are certainly wrong. The price of the "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Spreader cannot go lower. It may, however, go higher. Your land cannot afford to wait. You will make more than the whole price of the spreader perhaps, in one season by the use of it.

The Litchfield Mfg. Co. backs me in these assertions, and I KNOW that THEY know what they are talking about. When the Litchfield Company began building spreaders several years ago, they found on the market an AGGREGATION OF SPREADER CRIPPLES, and the first Litchfield was not much of an exception.

From the very start the Litchfield Spreader Line has received yearly, monthly and daily, constant, untiring engineering developing effort, and that is why our "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Spreader so completely out-classes other machines at the present time.

The history of the Litchfield Spreader Line shows increasing confidence of the people year by year, and a steady growth in the volume of business. Come in and let me show you this machine. If you want to be up with the times you can do so by owning a "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Spreader made by the oldest and largest builders in the business.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

AWARE OF DISEASE AMONG THE CATTLE

Dr. Northrup Declares Packers Have Observed Character of Live Stock Offerings.

PRICE OF BEEF ADVANCES

Cattle Men Cannot Afford to Permit The Continuance of Menace to Their Business

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Stock buyers who represent the large packing and shipping interests are aware of the prevalence of disease among cattle, particularly tuberculosis, and judge their offerings accordingly. This is why the Indiana farmer and live stock breeder has an economic and direct interest in the success of the state and federal campaign for the eradication of tuberculosis in cattle, it was explained today by Dr. L. E. Northrup, state veterinarian.

Dr. Northrup says that for years the packers have observed the character of the live stock offerings from the largest markets in the country. They have checked up carefully the number of infected animals, which under the federal meat inspection law are condemned on the premises and represent total loss for eating purposes and only a very small proportion of their cost when converted into a packing house by-products that are permissible from a sanitary viewpoint.

A few years have served to prove that buyers can well afford to pay a higher price for stock they have reason to believe is free from infection, and this reason is usually founded upon the information that is available through the state live stock records, Dr. Northrup states. It was with a view to preventing the interstate movement of infected cattle that the Indiana Live Stock Sanitary Board recently issued an order that no purchased cattle offered at public sale should be moved unless tuberculin tested within thirty days prior to the proposed shipment and the facts certified to the state veterinarian.

With the decline of the percentage of tuberculosis in Indiana cattle from 12 percent, a few years ago, to 3.6 per cent for beef cattle and 2.2 per cent for dairy stock, the relative price paid for Indiana beef has advanced, even in greater proportion. Dr. Northrup states, as compared with the situation that exists in other states where the effort to eradicate this disease has been less effective and persistent. Live stock feeders and breeders in large volume have observed this fact and are cooperating with the state department in the advocacy of the tuberculin test, applied by competent veterinarians, with a view to eliminating entirely any penalty on Indiana stock because of the possible prevalence of tuberculosis. From a purely selfish viewpoint, Dr. Northrup states, the cattle men themselves cannot afford to permit the continuance of a menace to their business and it is upon the universal realization of this fact that the department hopes to accomplish even more than ever before in its campaign against all infection of food producing animals.

AUSTRALIA AWAITS PRINCE

Melbourne, (By Mail).—Although it was believed that the Prince of Wales would be able to visit the Commonwealth of Australia early next spring, cables from London state that official circles consider it hardly probable that the prince will be able to make the trip at that time.

Official communications concerning his tour of the Antipodes are said to be on their way to the Commonwealth and as soon as they are received both the state and federal governments will appoint reception committees to prepare for the prince's visit. A draft of the program will be submitted to the prince before he leaves for Australia.

BOATS ARE USED TO CUT FALL HAY

Village of Gorodyszes on a Peninsula Uses Them to Gather in Reeds for Their Hay

EVEN GROWS IN WATER

Not Uncommon Sight to See Harvesters Make Hay, But Not in Usual Way as is Done Here

Pinsk, (By Mail).—It a man went through the street of any American village, carrying a hay rake over one shoulder and a paddle over the other, he might be put down by the sophisticated population as the property man of a moving picture troupe. But out in the Priput marshes it is all in the day's work.

In the little village of Gorodyszes—a good hour by motorboat from here, and considerably longer than the propeller gets fouled in the reeds—the farmers do their hay-making by boat. Some of the marsh vegetation can be cured and converted into acceptable hay, and on this nutriment the few horses of the village largely depend for their food.

Gorodyszes is far out on the tip of a narrow peninsula. It might as well be on an island. The marshes make city extension topographically impossible.

Log houses and door-yard gardens, small as they are, leave no room for hay fields and pasturage. So the peasants go down to the inland sea each morning, with their rakes, oars and sickles, and do their haying by boat.

When the water farmers picturesque little flat boat is piled high with swamp grass, he puts back for town, poling through the shallows and paddling across the depths. Along the sloping shore he spreads his amphibious harvest and dries it in the northern summer sun. Then he carries it up the hill and stores it for the bleak winter.

Beekeepers of Fountain county have organized a county association for the purpose of combatting American foul breed, a contagious disease.

"Cakes and Beer, and Washing Here"

Before a ramshackle house in a little New England village there used to hang this sign:

"Hiram, the widow's son, I hope,
"Can furnish customers with soap,
"Such as will make the washing day
Pass off as pleasant, e'en as May.
"Cakes, and beer, and washing here."

Hiram had the right idea. He knew that there were people who wanted what he had to sell. The difference between Hiram and the modern advertiser is that the former had to trust to somebody passing to see his sign. He could not bring his sign to everybody.

The modern advertiser with something to sell that he feels you want, saves you the trouble of going to his place to see about it. Readers of advertisements visit all the advertisers at a single sitting.

This is a service that those who advertise are rendering you, just as the clerks they hire, the deliveries they make, are service. They are saving your time, energy and money by bringing their establishments to you through the advertisements.

HEADACHE Caused by Acid-Stomach

Yes, indeed, more often than you think. Because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body. Severe, blinding, splitting headaches are, therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of this up set condition.

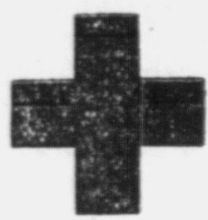

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its acid-bloat, pain and gas. It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. Millions of people are miserable, weak, sick and ailing because of ACID-STOMACH. Poisons, created by partly digested food charged with acid, are absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the entire system. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of their health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

If you want to get back your physical and mental strength—be full of vim and vigor—enjoy life and be happy, you must get rid of your acid-stomach.

In EATONIC you will find the very help you need and it's guaranteed. So get a big 50c box from your druggist today. If it fails to please you, return it and he will refund your money.

9-YEAR-OLD MUSICAL PRODIGY COMING U. S.

Brazil's Second Infant Wonder Will
Make a Tour and Complete Her
Education Here

NAME IS MARIA ANTONIO

(By United Press.)

Rio De Janeiro. (By Mail).—Maria Antonio, the nine-year old daughter of Senhor and Senhora Vital Ramos de Castor, and Brazil's second infant musical prodigy, is going to the United States to give a series of concerts and to complete her musical education in that country.

Since the time of Senhorita Guimar Novaes, whose remarkable pianistic abilities won international fame and whose talent roused the wonder and admiration of hundreds of thousands of music lovers in the United States, Brazil has not produced a musical genius equal to that now displayed by Maria Antonio de Castro.

Maria Antonio, in spite of her short nine years of life, has accumulated the outspoken praise and eulogy of the music critics not only of Brazil but also of Argentina and Uruguay. Her reputation has already reached Europe and she has received many invitations from that continent to develop her talent in the world.

At the advice of her "Maestro" Alfredo Oswald, however, her father is taking her to the United States whose musical circles are reported to be equipped with unusual educational facilities while war torn Europe has ceased to be the mecca and shrine of musicians.

MAY ADOPT TENNIS AS "LETTER SPORT"

Many Colleges Have Signified Willingness to go in For Game on a Large Scale

WILL PROVIDE EQUIPMENT

New York, Nov. 11.—Tennis may be adopted as "letter sport" next year in the big colleges.

The National Lawn Tennis Association, through Paul B. Williams, secretary is counting on the athletic directors of all the big universities where the court pastime is not listed among the major sports.

Many colleges have signified a willingness to go in for tennis on a large scale and provide the equipment and grounds for all the undergraduate body that wish to indulge.

The most general objection to placing tennis on a footing with football, basketball and track is that it would cheapen the value of the sport letter.

Julian Myrick, vice-president of the N. L. T. A., answered this argument with the statement that only six men constitute the ordinary tennis team and that would mean the awarding of only six more letters in the entire college—a number so slight as to be of no great consequence.

To Dedicate Memorial to Daughters of Marine Men

Sidney (By Mail).—A memorial dedicated to the merchant marine men of Australia killed in the war, to be known as the "Jellieco Hostel for the Daughters of the Mercantile Marine", in honor of Lord and Lady Jellieco, will be located in this city, it has just been announced.

There are nearly 1,000 daughters of Australians killed while engaged in manning merchantmen. Many of them have to live in apartments and boarding houses at a cost far beyond their means.

A palatial house overlooking Sidney harbor, built at a cost of $200,000 has been offered to the Mercantile Marine Service association, for use as the hostel, upon very favorable conditions. The edifice consists of 50 large rooms, and, with alterations it can house 400 girls. The hostel will be run upon the same line as the London hostel, which accommodates about 1000 daughters of men in the merchant marine.

South Americans use corn husks as cigarette wrappers.

CAMELS USED TO BRING LUMBER OVER DESERT

As Result of American Energy
Scores of Armenians Have Been
Able to Reoccupy Old Homes

ENCOUNTER MANY TROUBLES

Aleppo, Syria. (By Mail).—Bringing lumber across the Arabian desert by camel caravan is one of the achievements for which Americans will be longest remembered in Aleppo. The lumber was used in the reconstruction of Armenian refugees' homes.

When the American Red Cross arrived here it found many refugees living in the open, their houses having fallen apart through the removal of timbers by Turk soldiery for firewood. The nearest timber source was the Taurus mountains along the Euphrates river. An expedition under Capt. Edward Bickel of Seattle, Washington, was sent to investigate. It arranged for the cutting to timber and its transportation down the river on rafts to El Dair, in the desert.

Convoys of camels were then engaged and the lumber carried for miles across the desert to Aintab, Aleppo and Marash. Troubles arose with the Bedonin tribes of the desert, attacks being made upon the convoys and the lumber occasionally destroyed. Captain Bickel then arranged for a guard of thirty armed men to accompany each caravan. Thereafter the supplies arrived regularly.

One hundred native carpenters were rounded up by Capt. Bickel and set to work reconstructing the ruined buildings. As a result of this American energy and ingenuity, scores of Armenian families have been able to reoccupy their old homes.

Brothers Face Brothers On Many Gridirons This Fall

Brother against brother.

That will be the unusual situation in the center of the line when Yale and Princeton meet November 15th.

Capt. Tim Callahan, Yale star center, will buck against his big brother Mike who snaps the ball back for the Tigers.

Brothers on the same team are numerous this year.

Harvard has a pair in the Horwens—Ralph the star back and young Arthur a promising second string man.

The Wells twins are a notable example at Yale. One is playing in the backfield on the "varsity" while the other is on the line of the sub eleven.

The Miller brothers hold down the flank positions at Pennsylvania. Both are real stars. Heinie, former Quaker captain is a veteran while Ray is playing his first year on the big elevens.

Northwestern has twins on the end of the line—the Morrows—and both of whom are able players.

COAL MINERS STRIKE ENDS TODAY

WE ARE AMERICANS AND CAN'T FIGHT GOVERNMENT, SAYS LEWIS

President of United Mine Workers of America Makes Dramatic Announcement After Eighteen Hours Session, That Miners Will Comply With Order to Withdraw Strike.

WERE GIVEN UNTIL 6:00 P. M. TODAY

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—"We will comply with the mandatory of the court. We do this under protest. We are Americans. We cannot fight our government."

This was the statement of acting president, John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America, at the conclusion of a dramatic meeting of the union heads here early today.

The conference which had been in session more than eighteen hours, adjourned at 4:15 a. m.

In a voice shaking with emotion, acting President Lewis pronounced his word officially which will bring to a close the greatest tie-up in the history of the country.

More than 400,000 bituminous coal miners were affected by the strike which has been in progress since November 1.

Lewis plainly showed the strain which he has been laboring under for the past ten days. His face was red and tired. His voice was husky.

"There is no question about the strike of coal miners being ended," he said. "We expect the men to obey withdrawal of the order. All the power and influence of the union will be brought to bear to get the men to return to work. We expect argument in some quarters for a few days but we are confident that the union members will look at this in the same light as we do."

Throughout the night the conference, 106 in all, strove to reach a decision as to whether the strike order would be recalled or the injunction ignored.

Through the closed doors could be heard a heated debate among the conference. Complete secrecy was maintained by the conference.

It was not until after adjournment that the acting president consented to talk.

Agents of the department of justice were in evidence at the hotel during the meeting.

The united mine workers of America have complied with the "order" demanding recall of the strike in good faith," is the opinion of Judge Anderson.

The recall was submitted to the judge shortly before ten o'clock by attorneys for the miners.

After looking over the order Judge Anderson said, "I think this is proper and I think it is a good faithful compliance with the order."

"That was the intention of the union officials," said Henry Warmi, attorney for the miners.

COLD WAVE IN NORTHWEST.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—Chicago was in the grip of a cold wave today as the result of a storm which struck the north and north central states yesterday, delaying trains and crippling wire service. A blizzard in Colorado threatens severe loss to live stock. Kansas and Nebraska reports heavy snows. In several North Dakota points it was reported a snowfall of two feet.

All freight trains running out of Chicago were annulled and passenger train service was three to four hours late.

PRESIDENT WILL OFFER SERVICES

Will Tell United Mine Workers and Operators Government Will Help in Mediation

CABINET MEETING IS CALLED

Several Instrumentalities Which May be Employed, High Government Official Says

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Wilson will wire the main operators and United Mine Workers and other officials, offering services of the government in mediation of the difficulties which led to the strike which has just been called off.

The word of the president's attitude was given out at the White House this morning.

Wilson has been ready all along to start mediation as soon as the mine workers started to work.

After the report of the president's message, the cabinet was called into session.

It is expected that the mediation invitation will be formulated at the meeting in connection with discussion of the means of mediation.

"There are several courses" under consideration, several instrumentalities that may be employed," declared a high official.

Secretary of Labor Wilson who is understood to have opposed the Indianapolis injunction, indicated as he entered the meeting that the bureau of mediation might function in arranging a settlement.

RED CROSS GIRLS SEEK MEMBERSHIPS

Members of Local Sororities on the Streets During Day to Swell Number in Local Chapter.

GOOD REPORT FROM JACKSON

Red Cross girls were on the street today, the closing day of the Roll Call drive, seeking memberships in the Rush county chapter. They were members of the Psi Iota Xi and Tri Kappa sororities.

Reports received at headquarters indicate that the campaign is now well under way in every township. Dr. Bowen, the Jackson township chairman, reported 78 members to headquarters today, but said that he had not completed canvassing the township and would not make a final report until that time.

Many of the Rushville districts have not yet been canvassed. This is evident because over $40 in membership dues has been received at headquarters by Miss Nora Sleeth, vice-chairman for the campaign.

Further reports from the townships were expected by tomorrow at the latest.

ENDORSEMENT FOR MARINES MAKE FUTURE REFUSED

District G. O. P. Conference Votes Down Resolution Giving Blanket Approval to Goodrich

FAVORS A SPECIAL SESSION

County Chairmen Vote Unanimously on Resolution Approving Calling of Legislature

The sixth district republican committee refused to vote a blanket endorsement of Governor Goodrich's administration to date and of his future program, but adopted a resolution approving of him calling a special session of the legislature to ratify the woman's suffrage amendment to the constitution, at the district conference here yesterday afternoon.

The resolution commending the state administration and committing the district committee, which is composed of seven county chairmen, to Governor Goodrich's future policies, whatever they might be, was voted down after a spirited argument, which was engaged in by other party workers outside of the district committee. The exact wording of the resolution could not be learned, because it was torn up after it failed of passage.

The woman's suffrage resolution was introduced by Mrs. Elizabeth Claypool Earl of Connersville district chairman of the republican woman's organization and was backed by Mrs. Charles Butler of Huntington, state secretary; Miss Esther Griffin White, Wayne county chairman, and Miss Mary Sleeth, Rush county chairman, all of whom attended the conference.

The resolution giving unlimited endorsement of Governor Goodrich was drawn up by a committee appointed by Walter Bossert of Liberty, district chairman. The committee was composed of W. B. Woodward of Richmond, Wayne county chairman; I. M. Bridgeman, editor of the Brookville American and chairman of the Franklin county central committee, and W. R. Jinnett of Manilla, representative from Rush county in the state legislature.

It was reported that the resolution was written by Mr. Bridgeman and endorsed "anything recommended."

Squad of Eight Comes to Help Celebrate Armistice Day and to Seek Recruits

CORPS STILL NEEDS MEN

Authorized Strength of 75,000 Not Obtained During War—Carries War Relics

A squad of eight Marines reached Rushville last night and today they were engaged in explaining to prospective recruits the advantage of becoming a "soldier of the sea."

The squad headed by First Sergeant Shearer, came here to assist in the celebration of Armistice Day and incidentally to add a few recruits. They carried a large exhibit of overseas war relics, all of which had an interesting story connected to them. The squad's mascot is a typical English bull dog which Sgt. Coogler picked up at Harve. He was 47 times across no-man's land in a motorcycle sidecar and once went 22,500 feet in the air in an observation plane.

"The first anniversary of the signing of the armistice," said Sergeant Coogler "still finds the Marine Corps in need of good men owing to the fact that their activities and duties have broadened and the small authorized strength that congress has allowed makes them in much demand. The Marine Corps at the beginning of the war numbered about 10,000 officers and enlisted men. Soon after war was declared, however, congress authorized 75,000, of which about three-fourths was obtained before the armistice was signed. A very high standard was set for the men who entered the Marine Corps during the war and the morale and discipline was 100 percent, mostly due to the fact that a great many of the officers were promoted from the ranks and knew well their duties of making seasoned veterans out of recruits."

"The Marines are trained, clothed and equipped very much as are the land forces. In their preliminary instructions on shore at navy yards and naval stations, they are instructed and drilled in the duties of infantry soldiers, field artillerymen and machine gun companies. Levi Crull Asks $190 For Damage to Horse and Buggy Struck by G. V. Conway's Auto

Indianapolis Newspaper Man Was Occupant—Court Calendar is Made For November Term

A new suit has been filed in circuit court asking damages in the sum of $190 for injuries which a horse sustained when struck by an automobile driven by G. V. Conway of this city. Levi Crull, owner of the horse and buggy which was struck, is the plaintiff in the case.

Crull alleges that on or about July 16, G. V. Conway negligently and carelessly ran his automobile into the horse and buggy in which Edward L. Pitts and his daughter Mary Pitts, 15 years old, were riding. The accident happened at the corner of Ninth and Main streets. Crull maintains that the horse has not been able to be used since the accident, and asks $150 damages for the horse and $40 damages for the buggy.

According to the complaint, Pitts is employed by an Indianapolis newspaper, and had hired the horse and buggy from Crull, who says that he is in the livery and feed business at First and Perkins street.

INDIANA CITIES ARE CELEBRATING TODAY

Majority of Places Had Program Under Auspices of War Camp Community Service.

INDIANAPOLIS AND NEWCASTLE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Cities throughout the state today were celebrating the anniversary of the signing of the armistice.

The majority of the celebrations were being held under the auspices of the war camp community service.

A pageant, "The Quest for Freedom," was to be presented in six sections of this city by social and theatrical organization.

Newcastle, Ind., Nov. 11.—Henry county and Newcastle today paid official tribute to the soldiers, marines and sailors who fell in the great war.

The celebration centered in Newcastle and was held jointly with the observance of the anniversary of the signing of the armistice. The Henry county War Mothers had charge of the program which included a banquet and speeches of welcome by men of prominence.

At the eventful hour of eleven the celebration of the first anniversary of the ending of the world war was ushered in today.

Church bells, the court house bell and factory whistles set up a bedlam of noise which recalled this morning a year ago, when the world was overjoyed at the news of the signing of the armistice which brought to a close the most terrible war in history.

Rush county was ready at 11-11-11, to observe the day in a fashion becoming such an event. The business district of the city was bedecked with flags and many Rushville homes displayed flags in recognition of the occasion.

People began to arrive early, and formed the vanguard of what was expected to be one of the biggest crowds ever attending a celebration here. All conditions suited. The weather was ideal. After throwing a scare about snow and rain and colder weather for today, the prognosticator relented and turned on the bright sunshine out of a cloudless sky. The air was crisp enough to give a person "pep," but the sun promised to bring the mercury up to a reasonable mark.

The festivities were to begin at one o'clock this afternoon with music by the band and an orchestra on the platform which was erected this morning at the west entrance of the court house.

The big feature of the day was to be the Service Flag parade at two o'clock. The parade will form in Main street, the township delegations forming in Third and falling in behind the band, and the Rushville delegations in Second street west of Main. The procession will march to First street, east to Perkins and up Perkins to Sixth. The automobile section carrying War Mothers, Civil War Veterans and the W. R. C. was to form in First street and move up Perkins to Eleventh and across to Main. Coming down Main, this section was to join with the marching delegations at Sixth and Main and move down Main street through the business district.

At three o'clock Colonel Robert A. Tyndall will speak from the platform in the court house yard and at four o'clock Harry H. Gardiner, the "Human Fly," will scale the west walls of the court house, go up over the roof, climb the tower and go up the flag pole. He will repeat the performance tonight at 8:30 o'clock under the glare of a spotlight.

The Sparkler Parade will be held at seven o'clock and will form the same way as the Service Flag parade. The street lights will be turned off and it is expected that the sparklers will make a beautiful sight as the parade moves down the Main street hill. Fear was entertained that the sparklers would not arrive in time, but they reached Rushville this morning.

The Salvation Army was ready before noon to dispense the famous doughnut and coffee to all ex-service men from a tent at the opening of the alley between Casady's dry goods store and Kelley's grocery landing parties from ships of the navy, for expeditionary duty and defenders of naval advance bases, they are further trained in aviation, in the use of portable search lights, the wireless telegraph and heliograph and the various other methods of signalling (qualification along these lines meaning extra pay) range finding, the erection, operations and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines, the planting of land and submarine mines, the handling of torpedoes, the erection and demolition of bridges, the building of roads and splicing of ropes, hauling boats under bars and sails, the handling of heavy weights, the fitting of gun gear, and the various methods of slinging and transporting ordnance, and the mounting in suitable shore positions of guns of three, five and six-inch calibre.

"To their services on battle ships of the navy the marines form a part of the ships complement for battle manning six inch, five inch and six pounder guns of the intermediate and secondary batteries and anti-aircraft guns. They are trained and fully equipped for instant service as landing parties for duty on shore.

"Great mobility and facilities for quick action are required of the marines. They must be kept in readiness to move at a moment's notice and be prepared for service in any climate. Marines have seen service in all parts of the world including Egypt, Algiers, Tripoli, Mexico, Japan, China, Porto Rico, Panama, Nicaragua, Santo Domingo, Formosa, Samatra, Hawaii, Samoa, Guam, Alaska, Siberia, France, Virgin Islands, Philippine Islands and Haiti. The golden tradition of the marine corps have been upheld for over a hundred years from the days of John Paul Jones to the present time and the type of men who have made the (Semper Fidelis) always faithful marines from its very existence has been the real red blooded American lovers of their country and flag and served them for honor and glory as well as travel and adventure.

"The Marine Corps today offers many advantages especially to the young man. Recently at our training camp at Parris Island, schools have been opened to give courses in various lines of modern and commercial business including, mathematics, mechanical drawing, mechanics, drafting, motor transports, complete business education, general high school, gas engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, science, physiology, literature, writing, law, tool making, music, telegraphy and radio. Think of this young man where would you ever get an opportunity with pay, clothing and practically all other necessities and another offer like this.

"The regular pay of the marines varies from $30.00 and up, according to rank and length of service. A man starts in as a private at $30 per month and climbs up in accordance with his own merits and individual efforts. A man is given a good conduct medal for each enlistment he serves honestly and faithfully and for each good conduct medal that he holds he receives 83 cents per month in addition to his regular pay. Should he qualify with the service rifle his pay is increased from $2.00 to $3.00 per month. Likewise if he qualifies with the great guns aboard ship his pay is increased from $4.00 to $12 per month according to the class of gun at which he is stationed. While serving aboard ship or on shore outside the United States his pay is increased twenty percent. A comparatively small percentage of the men in the marine corps draw the minimum pay.

FULL OF COLD: HAD THE GRIP

This has been such a trying year for sickness that many will be pleased to read how Lewis Newman, 596 Northrup St., Charleston, W. Va., was restored to health. He writes: "I was down sick and nothing would do me any good. I was full of cold. Had the grip, influenza, got two bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar. It is the best remedy for grip and colds I ever used. Good for grip, coughs, croup, whooping cough and common colds. P. B. Johnson (Ad.)"

ENDORSEMENT FOR FUTURE REFUSED

by Governor Goodrich. Although it was intended that the resolution should be passed on by the district committee, it drew opposition from other party workers as soon as it was introduced. It was championed by Mr. Jinnett who said he was committed to Governor Goodrich's policies.

Robert E. Mansfield of this city, who himself has had some experience in state politics by reason of having served as secretary of the state committee in 1896, during the McKinley campaign, when the late John K. Gowdy was state chairman, opposed the resolution on the theory that it covered too much ground.

Mr. Mansfield argued that it would not be wise to endorse the future program of the governor when he nor anyone else knew what it was. Others took the same position as he did.

I. W. Henley, secretary of the state committee, said that while he did not speak with authority, he could attempt at least to give some idea of what Governor Goodrich's policies would be in the future.

During the discussion Mayor George Elliott of Newcastle and a number of other republicans from Henry county left the meeting.

Yesterday's meeting is one of a series of conferences being held in each congressional district. They were called by Secretary Henley to discuss organization work and apparently to get the blanket endorsement of the state administration regardless of what the governor's course in the future might be.

With very little discussion the six members of the district committee present passed the resolution introduced by Mrs. Earl approving the governor's action in calling a special session of the legislature to ratify the federal woman's suffrage amendment.

The resolution reads as follows: "To James P. Goodrich, governor of Indiana.

"We, the chairman of the sixth congressional district, do hereby approve of you calling a special session of the legislature to ratify the amendment to the federal constitution giving women full citizenship."

It was signed by the chairman as follows: W. B. Woodward, Wayne; L. M. Bridgeman, Franklin; A. L. Riggs, Rush; O. P. Lafuse, Union; Charles Amos, Shelby; and Rufus Hinshaw, Henry.

LOCAL H.S. WILL SHOW THEM HOW

Spiceland Basketball Tossers Claim Nothing in This Section Can Stop Them

PLAY HERE FRIDAY NIGHT.

Locals are Going Good and Will, no Doubt Repeat Last Friday's Victory.

The local high school basketball team will meet a stiff proposition here Friday night when they will play the Spiceland Academy, and the Henry county team maintains there is nothing in this section that can stop them. The Spiceland team is out for district honors this year, after coping it last year at the tournament in Newcastle.

The Newcastle Courier in speaking of the game of last Friday night said:

"In a fast and thrilling battle Technical high school of Indianapolis, defeated Spiceland at Spiceland last Friday night. Spiceland seized the lead at the start and held it until the last five minutes of the game when the Tech attack broke through and quickly overcame their lead, winning 19 to 15."

The Spiceland gym was packed to the doors with a basketball-mad crowd that was behind the local team every minute of the play. When the game went the other way the Spiceland boys were not disheartened for they felt that their boys had made a great fight against the wonderful Tech team. "There is nothing in this section that can stop us," said one Spiceland enthusiast.

Technical had the strongest team on the floor that ever wore the colors of the Indianapolis school. Two men in its lineup, Drayer and Hawkins, class with Stonebreaker in size and are not far behind that star in action. Spiceland took the lead early on foul goals. Both sides, fighting hard had fouls called on them frequently. Reece, who threw for Spiceland, made every one count while Tech couldn't find the ring. Myer bagged two field goals for Spiceland and Reece got in one. Nipper opened the scoring for Tech with a shot from the floor then Black added two more on free throws. Griggs of Tech landed a basket just before the close of the first half, making the score stand 10 for Spiceland.

The local team since winning from Milroy last Friday night here, is still in practice and will enter the game Friday night to show Spiceland that they can be beaten. Some of the best teams in the state will appear, and some very interesting games are promised for the basketball fans here this year on the local's schedule.

INCREASE IN THE TENANCY NOTICED

Soaring of Land Prices in Indiana Has Been the Cause, According to Prof. Christie

TENANTS OPERATE A THIRD

Hope of Indiana Farmers is That People Will Stay on Land and Build Up The Community

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 11--One of the most serious results of the soaring land prices in Indiana is the increase in tenancy, according to Professor G. I. Christie, superintendent of the agricultural extension department of Purdue university.

"Indiana now has more than one-third of the farms operated by tenants," said Professor Christie. "It has been the aim and object of our work for many years to encourage tenants to buy farms and thus increase the number of land owners who operate their own farms. The establishing now of unusually high prices makes it almost prohibitive for tenants to buy these farms and thereby increases rather than decrease the number of tenants on Indiana farms."

These high priced lands will have to be farmed as they have never been farmed to even make interest on the investment is the opinion of Professor Christie, who also believes that reasonable price will have to be obtained for products of these farms.

"Many farmers who have sold their land for high prices, hoping to purchase other lands, will be forced, if they get a farm, to pay a high price for it," he said. "In addition they have left their farm and community and must start again in a new neighborhood. While they may have the advantage of a little profit on the deal they have the disadvantage of the change. The hope of Indiana farms is that people will stay on the land, that they will farm it in the best possible way, and that they will build up the life of the community. This can only come about by families continuing to live year after year in the same neighborhood with other families who are congenial and sociable and who have the same ideals and aspirations."

MOVEMENTS

Armistice Day at Princess

Armistice Day moving picture patrons will see a good program today at the Princess theater, when Eugene O'Brien will appear in "Sealed Hearts." The picture has just been released and was engaged as a special attraction for the Rushville and Rush county people who were here today for purpose of attending the celebration, and incidentally see a good moving picture. A Bray pictograph will also be shown, which has many good things of current interest.

Fight fans who thought the Willard-Dempsey mill was too one-sided, should pay a visit to the Princess theater on Wednesday where "The Egg Crate Wallop", Charles Ray's latest photoplay will be on view. Thomas H. Ince produced the picture, and he is strong for realism. He has staged in this film a full-fledged prize fight from preliminaries to knock-out, with such principals as Al. Kaukman, Cliff Jordan and Izzie Glasser, the West Coast feather-weight champ, in the ring and five hundred dyed-in-the-wool fight enthusiasts occupying the bleachers.

Charles Ray, the athletic star, mixes it up for five round with a regular "pug". At the climax Charlie puts over his famous "egg crate wallop", and his opponent hits the resin.

Plays Dual Role

Two distinct roles are portrayed by Montagu Love, the famous character actor, in "Through the Toils," the strikingly unusual new World Picture which will be shown on today at the Mystic theatre. In the first of these he appears in the character of Lewis Moffatt, an eccentric, selfish disillusioned old author who seeks fresh inspiration for a new novel. In the second he appears in the role of Noel Graham, a young writer who falls in love with Moffatt's ward.

It is a striking, unusual, engrossing story which is told in this notable picture. It is an entirely different story too from any that you've seen in a long, long time and the characterizations given by Mr. Love to the two men are vivid, vital and impressive. Of course an exceptional cast has been gathered together to assist Mr. Love in giving the proper presentation to this production.

"Through the Toils" has been lavishly staged. From every angle it is a notable film. You will be interested in knowing that Harry O. Hoyt, who directed Mr. Love in his recent sensational success, "The Hand Invisible," also directed him in this new play.

Baby Marie Osborne is also at the Mystic today in "Baby Marie's Round-up."

EVANGELIST MAKES A DEEP IMPRESSION

Notwithstanding the rainy weather last evening, a surprisingly large audience gathered at the Main Street Christian church to listen to the initial sermon of the Rev. W. N. Briney. His theme was "Watchfulness." He possesses a pleasing personality, a charm of delivery that captivated his hearers, and an earnest enthusiasm that impressed all with the soul sincerity of the man who has served his church in Louisville for 15 years.

A beautiful solo was sung by Lloyd Nelson. At the close of the service the Rev. G. F. Sheldon, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, came forward and stood in line for the people to extend to him a welcome as well as to the Rev. Mr. Briney. The song service this evening will begin at 7:30. The solo of the evening will be rendered by Homer Cole. At 8 the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Briney will be delivered.

A Cheerful Recommendation
"They should be in every traveling man's grip," writes Geo. Jenner, 416 Lathrop St., San Antonio, Tex., of Foley Cathartic Tablets. "They are the best laxative I have taken and I cheerfully recommend them to anyone suffering with constipation or biliousness." They thoroughly cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach and benefit the liver. They correct indigestion, bad breath, bloating, gas, coated tongue and other results of sluggish bowels. No gripping, no nausea. F. B. Johnson. —(Adv.)

EVEN MOVIES GO UP IN AIRPLANE

California Studios Have Commercial Planes Which Are All Doing a Big Business

ALL LIKE THEIR JOY RIDING

Charlie Chaplin Throws Pies in Air and Even Cecil DeMille Has Gone up in The Air

Los Angeles, Nov. 11—The movies are seeking a higher plane—an airplane, as it were.

For some subtle reason, thus far unexplained airplaning has strongly appealed to the movie folk.

As a result southern California now has three completely equipped commercial flying fields, all operated by motion picture magnates as a sideline and as a means of amusement, and all doing a thriving commercial business.

Cecil DeMille, noted director, was the first to go up in the air over aviation. He established DeMille Field and later became the leading spirit in the founding of the Mercury Aviation Company which operates a half dozen aerial taxis and will accept any job from bringing a prize pig to market or taking home a late celebrant, to rushing a busy business man to Kankakee to attend his grandmother's funeral.

Then the Chaplin family saw something funny, evidently, in aviation. Syd Chaplin, brother of Charlie, founded the Chaplin Aircraft Corporation and started Chaplin Field in the heart of Los Angeles. Brother Charlie put some of his money into it 'tis understood. So now the Chaplin company is owner of a flock of Curtis bi-planes and a pair of "Seagulls" or flying boats said to be similar to the famed "Nancties."

Next came Thomas Ince. He started Ince Field down at Venice. Ince isn't in the game commercially as extensively as the others. He's offering, however, $50,000 for the first man to fly to Australia.

The result of all of this is that Los Angeles now claims to be the largest commercial aviation center in the world. Scores are learning to fly and the hum of the airplane motor is becoming such a nuisance that one good minister is urging passage of a law requiring flyers to shut off their motors when they fly over churches; and more than one tired resident is complaining that those "confounded flyin' machines" disturb his Sunday morning beauty sleep.

SLIM A HERO UNSUNG

By Henry L. Farrell
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Nov. 11—World series bouquets have been passed around galore. Pat Moran, boss of the world's champions, has been crowned king of the "Miracle men" and has received recognition from the club owners with a $5,000 bonus check. Each of the Reds who distinguished himself on the field has had his greatness heralded from the house-tops of baseball.

Tribute has been paid to all the heroes but one of them has not received his just dues. When he won the second game of the series, Slim Sallee, the veteran southpaw was the man of the hour with the rabid baseball populace of the Ohio City. When he was knocked out of the box on his second attempt, the fans kicked down the pedestal upon which they had elevated him and immediately proceeded to forget him.

Hod Eller and Jimmie Ring occupy the niche that Cincinnati hearts have set aside for heroes. They are ranked as holders of the master degree of pitching art. In their enthusiasm fans give little thought to the "power behind the throne," the man who made these young hurlers, who schooled them and taught them the kind of baseball that enabled them to go out and set back the dangerous hitting White Sox.

Pat Moran, master eater of his day and an artist in handling pitchers has been credited as the man who took a squad of cast-off, erratic pitchers and moulded them into the best all-around corps of moundmen in years. The ruddy faced Red leader deserves all the credit that has been given him but old Slim Sallee must come in for his share as a lieutenant who perhaps had more to do in bringing these youngsters up through the grades from the kindergarten of their pitching education.

Early in the season Sallee became a self-constituted god-father to Reuther, Ring and Eller. He worked with them gave them tips on fooling batters that he had picked up in twelve campaigns through the majors. He painted their chances of success so rosy that instead of warning the bench at every opportunity they were out hurling balls over impoverished pans at anyone who would receive them seeking that which Moran most insisted upon—control.

When they started the drive for the pennant, the veteran increased his vigilance. From the dugout he coached them over the rough places until they had learned enough to fight their own battles. But he remained as the "confidential adviser." When they warmed up previous to their world's series starts, Slim was at their side and when they went out and distinguished themselves they were no more pleased than their old teacher.

Some say that the old veteran's baseball days are over. But it is safe to assert that his services with Moran will not cease even after the old trusty left arm has shot its wad. Slim has earned a life-time berth with the Red leader if he wants it.

The Doctor Says

Remove the Cause

Don't think this is a PATENT MEDICINE ADVERTISEMENT, for it is not. However, if a man is sick people don't, as a rule, stand around and criticize him and say he can't be cured; they make an effort to find out the cause of his trouble and REMOVE IT. That's just where I am at in the SPREADER business.

Right along this line I want to say that if you have any thoughts in your mind, causing you to delay the purchase of a spreader, let me try to remove this cause immediately, for you are certainly wrong. The price of the "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Spreader cannot go lower. It may, however, go higher. Your land cannot afford to wait. You will make more than the whole price of the spreader perhaps, in one season by the use of it.

The Litchfield Mfg. Co. backs me in these assertions, and I KNOW that THEY know what they are talking about. When the Litchfield Company began building spreaders several years ago, they found on the market an AGGREGATION OF SPREADER CRIPPLES, and the first Litchfield was not much of an exception.

From the very start the Litchfield Spreader Line has received yearly, monthly and daily, constant, untiring engineering developing effort, and that is why our "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Spreader so completely out-classes other machines at the present time.

The history of the Litchfield Spreader Line shows increasing confidence of the people year by year, and a steady growth in the volume of business. Come in and let me show you this machine. If you want to be up with the times you can do so by owning a "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Spreader made by the oldest and largest builders in the business.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

AWARE OF DISEASE AMONG THE CATTLE

Dr. Northrup Declares Packers Have Observed Character of Live Stock Offerings.

PRICE OF BEEF ADVANCES

Cattle Men Cannot Afford to Permit The Continuance of Menace to Their Business

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11—Stock buyers who represent the large packing and shipping interests are aware of the prevalence of disease among cattle, particularly tuberculosis, and judge their offerings accordingly. This is why the Indiana farmer and live stock breeder has an economic and direct interest in the success of the state and federal campaign for the eradication of tuberculosis in cattle, it was explained today by Dr. L. E. Northrup, state veterinarian.

Dr. Northrup says that for years the packers have observed the character of the live stock offerings from the largest markets in the country. They have checked up carefully the number of infected animals, which under the federal meat inspection law are condemned on the premises and represent total loss for eating purposes and only a very small proportion of their cost when converted into a packing house by-products that are permissible from a sanitary viewpoint.

A few years have served to prove that buyers can well afford to pay a higher price for stock they have reason to believe is free from infection, and this reason is usually founded upon the information that is available through the state live stock records, Dr. Northrup states. It was with a view to preventing the interstate movement of infected cattle that the Indiana Live Stock Sanitary Board recently issued an order that no purchased cattle offered at public sale should be moved unless tuberculin tested within thirty days prior to the proposed shipment and the facts certified to the state veterinarian.

With the decline of the percentage of tuberculosis in Indiana cattle from 12 percent, a few years ago, to 3.6 per cent for beef cattle and 2.2 per cent for dairy stock, the relative price paid for Indiana beef has advanced, even in greater proportion, Dr. Northrup states, as compared with the situation that exists in other states where the effort to eradicate this disease has been less effective and persistent. Live stock feeders and breeders in large volume, have observed this fact and are cooperating with the state department in the advocacy of the tuberculin test, applied by competent veterinarians, with a view to eliminating entirely any penalty on Indiana stock because of the possible prevalence of tuberculosis. From a purely selfish viewpoint, Dr. Northrup states, the cattle men themselves cannot afford to permit the continuance of a menace to their business and it is upon the universal realization of this fact that the department hopes to accomplish even more than ever before in its campaign against all infection of food producing animals.

AUSTRALIA AWAITS PRINCE

Melbourne, (By Mail)—Although it was believed that the Prince of Wales would be able to visit the Commonwealth of Australia early next spring, cables from London state that official circles consider it hardly probable that the prince will be able to make the trip at that time. Official communications concerning his tour of the Antipodes are said to be on their way to the Commonwealth and as soon as they are received both the state and federal governments will appoint reception committees to prepare for the prince's visit. A draft of the program will be submitted to the prince before he leaves for Australia.

BOATS ARE USED TO CUT FALL HAY

Village of Gorodyszes on a Peninsula Uses Them to Gather in Reeds for Their Hay

EVEN GROWS IN WATER

Not Uncommon Sight to See Harvesters Make Hay, But Not in Usual Way as is Done Here

Pinsk, (By Mail)—It is a man went through the street of any American village, carrying a hay rake over one shoulder and a paddle over the other, he might be put down by the sophisticated population as the property man of a moving picture troupe. But out in the Pripiat marshes it is all in the day's work.

In the little village of Gorodyszes—a good hour by motorboat from here, and considerably longer than the propeller gets fouled in the reeds—the farmers do their hay-making by boat. Some of the marsh vegetation can be cured and converted into acceptable hay, and on this nutriment the few horses of the village largely depend for their food.

Gorodyszes is far out on the tip of a narrow peninsula. It might as well be on an island. The marshes make city extension topographically impossible.

Log houses and door-yard gardens, small as they are, leave no room for lux fields and pasturage. So the peasants go down to the inland sea each morning, with their rakes, oars and sickles, and do their haying by boat.

When the water farmers picturesque little flat boat is piled high with swamp grass, he puts back for town, poling through the shallows and puddling across the depths. Along the sloping shore he spreads his amphibious harvest and dries it in the northern summer sun. Then he carries it up the hill and stores it for the bleak winter.

Beckkeepers of Fountain county have organized a county association for the purpose of combatting American foul breed, a contagious disease

"Cakes and Beer, and Washing Here"

Before a ramshackle house in a little New England village there used to hang this sign:

"Hiram, the widow's son, I hope,
"Can furnish customers with soap,
"Such as will make the washing day
Pass off as pleasant, e'en as May.
"Cakes, and beer, and washing here."

Hiram had the right idea. He knew that there were people who wanted what he had to sell. The difference between Hiram and the modern advertiser is that the former had to trust to somebody passing to see his sign. He could not bring his sign to everybody.

The modern advertiser with something to sell that he feels you want, saves you the trouble of going to his place to see about it. Readers of advertisements visit all the advertisers at a single sitting.

This is a service that those who advertise are rendering you, just as the clerks they hire, the deliveries they make, are service. They are saving your time, energy and money by bringing their establishments to you through the advertisements.

Good farmers found out long ago that the better livestock is housed the more it pays for its keep. A good barn, whether it be for dairy cows, mixed stock, grain storage, or general purposes, is a farm structure that never fails to pay dividends on the investment.

The barn shown in this cut is a big, complete, thoroughly modern structure. We have blue prints and working plans for it, and can give you complete and accurate cost estimates. Acid-Stomach

Now, indeed, more often than you think, because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body. Severe, blinding, splitting headaches are, therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of taking up acid condition.

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its acid-bloat, pain and gas. It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, dizziness of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of their health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

If you want to get back your physical and mental strength—be full of vim and vigor—enjoy life and be happy, you must get rid of your acid-stomach.

9-YEAR-OLD MUSICAL PRODIGY COMING U. S.

Brazil's Second Infant Wonder Will
Make a Tour and Complete Her
Education Here

NAME IS MARIA ANTONIO

(By United Press.)

Rio De Janeiro, (By Mail).—Maria Antonio, the nine-year old daughter of Senhor and Senhora Vital Ramos de Castro, and Brazil's second infant musical prodigy, is going to the United States to give a series of concerts and to complete her musical education in that country.

Since the time of Senhorita Guimar Novaes, whose remarkable pianistic abilities won international fame and whose talent roused the wonder and admiration of hundreds of thousands of music lovers in the United States, Brazil has not produced a musical genius equal to that now displayed by Maria Antonio de Castro.

Maria Antonio, in spite of her short nine years of life, has accumulated the outspoken praise and eulogy of the music critics not only of Brazil but also of Argentina and Uruguay. Her reputation has already reached Europe and she has received many invitations from that continent to develop her talent in the world.

At the advice of her "Maestro" Alfredo Oswald, however, her father is taking her to the United States whose musical circles are reported to be equipped with unusual educational facilities while war torn Europe has ceased to be the mecca and shrine of musicians.

MAY ADOPT TENNIS AS "LETTER SPORT"

Many Colleges Have Signified Willingness to go in For Game on a Large Scale

WILL PROVIDE EQUIPMENT

New York, Nov. 11.—Tennis may be adopted as "letter sport" next year in the big colleges.

The National Lawn Tennis Association, through Paul B. Williams, secretary is counting on the athletic directors of all the big universities where the court pastime is not listed among the major sports.

Many colleges have signified a willingness to go in for tennis on a large scale and provide the equipment and grounds for all the undergraduate body that wish to indulge. The most general objection to placing tennis on a footing with football, basketball and track is that it would cheapen the value of the sport letter.

Julian Myrick, vice-president of the N. L. T. A. answered this argument with the statement that only six men constitute the ordinary tennis team and that would mean the awarding of only six more letters in the entire college—a number so slight as to be of no great consequence.

To Dedicate Memorial to Daughters of Marine Men

Sidney (By Mail).—A memorial dedicated to the merchant marine men of Australia killed in the war, to be known as the "Jellicoe Hostel for the Daughters of the Mercantile Marine", in honor of Lord and Lady Jellicoe, will be located in this city, it has just been announced.

There are nearly 1,000 daughters of Australians killed while engaged in manning merchantmen. Many of them have to live in apartments and boarding houses at a cost far beyond their means.

A palatial house overlooking Sidney harbor, built at a cost of $200,000, has been offered to the Mercantile Marine Service association, for use as the hostel, upon very favorable conditions. The edifice consists of 50 large rooms, and, with alterations it can house 400 girls. The hostel will be run upon the same line as the London hostel, which accommodates about 1,000 daughters of men in the merchant marine.

South Americans use corn husks as cigarette wrappers.

Scores of Armenians Have Been
Able to Reoccupy Old Homes

ENCOUNTER MANY TROUBLES

Aleppo, Syria, (By Mail).—Bringing lumber across the Arabian desert by camel caravan is one of the achievements for which Americans will be longest remembered in Aleppo. The lumber was used in the reconstruction of Armenian refugees' homes.

When the American Red Cross arrived here it found many refugees living in the open, their houses having fallen apart through the removal of timbers by Turk soldiery for firewood. The nearest timber source was the Taurus mountains along the Euphrates river. An expedition under Capt. Edward Bickel of Seattle, Washington, was sent to investigate. It arranged for the cutting of timber and its transportation down the river on rafts to El Dair, in the desert.

Convoys of camels were then engaged and the lumber carried for miles across the desert to Aintab, Aleppo and Marash. Troubles arose with the Bedouin tribes of the desert, attacks being made upon the convoys and the lumber occasionally destroyed. Captain Bickel then arranged for a guard of thirty armed men to accompany each caravan. Thereafter the supplies arrived regularly.

One hundred native carpenters were rounded up by Capt. Bickel and set to work reconstructing the ruined buildings. As a result of this American energy and ingenuity, scores of Armenian families have been able to reoccupy their old homes.

Brothers Face Brothers On Many Gridirons This Fall

Brother against brother. That will be the unusual situation in the center of the line when Yale and Princeton meet November 15th.

Capt. Tim Callahan, Yale star center, will buck against his big brother Mike who snaps the ball back for the Tigers. Brothers on the same team are numerous this year.

Harvard has a pair in the Horweens—Ralph the star back and young Arthur a promising second string man.

The Wells twins are a notable example at Yale. One is playing in the backfield on the "varsity" while the other is on the line of the sub eleven.

The Miller brothers hold down the flank positions at Pennsylvania. Both are real stars. Heinie, former Quaker captain, is a veteran while Ray is playing his first year on the big eleven.

Northwestern has twins on the end of the line—the Morrows—and both of whom are able players.
